

Radius CPH is joining Only, a European network of strategic agencies

Copenhagen / Utrecht, 4 June 2026 – Radius CPH, a corporate affairs agency based in Denmark, today joins Only, a network of strategic communication agencies across the Benelux and Nordic regions. Radius CPH offers integrated services across critical communication, corporate strategy, positioning and public affairs. With this acquisition, Only strengthens its growing footprint in the Nordics.

Since its founding in 2003, Radius CPH has grown into Denmark's leading adviser in risk and reputation management, with a team of 30+ specialists. Radius CPH advises large companies headquartered in or with a strategic interest in Denmark, as well as leading civil society organisations such as private foundations, across critical communication, corporate transformation and strategy, corporate positioning, and public affairs and policy strategy. Its industry expertise spans life sciences, energy, transport, food and drink, agriculture, ICT and financial services.

By joining Only, Radius CPH gains access to a network of more than 850 communication professionals across three European countries, while retaining its own identity, autonomy and founder-led leadership. The partnership strengthens Radius CPH's services through shared expertise across the network. By working closely with other agencies in the group, Radius CPH will be able to guide its clients even more effectively through complex communication challenges.

Founder and CEO of Radius CPH, Nicolaj Taudorf Andersen: “Only is the perfect match for us in terms of values, ambition and business. Radius CPH will remain an independent, founder-led company, and we will continue to be rooted in the culture, values and strategic foundation that we have built over 23 years and are proud to have created together with the hundreds of talented Radius CPH people who have passed through our ‘talent factory’. That means a great deal to me and to my fellow partners.”

Nicolaj Taudorf Andersen also sees considerable potential in the new ownership: “I am also very much looking forward to becoming part of the ambitious Only family and to working with Frans and the rest of the leadership team. We will gain access to the extensive capabilities, insight and experience of the growing Only network. There is no doubt that we will learn a great deal, and that Only will make Radius CPH stronger and even more capable, both in the short and the long term.”

Only is a European network of independent, founder-led firms in strategic communication, connecting ambitious teams across the Netherlands, Belgium and the Nordics. The network brings together local entrepreneurship and the strength of a European network, allowing teams to remain deeply rooted in their local context, while benefiting from collective knowledge, experience and scale.

Frans de Vries, CEO of Only: "I am proud to welcome Radius CPH to Only. As one of the leading corporate affairs agencies in Denmark, they are a natural fit for our network. From my first conversations with Nicolaj, and Henrik, it was clear we share the same values, entrepreneurial mindset and the conviction that communication is decisive for organisations navigating Europe’s defining transitions. Radius CPH is our second team in the Nordics, together with Marketsquare, and by joining Only, they step into a network of more than 850 communication professionals across the Benelux and Nordics. On behalf of all my Only colleagues, welcome!"

About RadiusCPH

Radius CPH is a leading corporate affairs agency in Denmark, offering integrated services across critical communication, corporate transformation and strategy, corporate positioning, and public affairs and policy strategy. We help solve some of the most complex communications issues in Denmark. At Radius CPH, we work in an insight-driven and in a problem-led way – always with our clients’ needs at the center. We usually say that we thrive in adversity – together with our clients. Our advice is grounded in our values, which are integral to the way we work. At Radius CPH, we advise large companies headquartered in, or with strategic interest in, Denmark, as well as leading civil society organisations such as private foundations. Agriculture and food, tech and telecom, energy and utilities, constructions and real-estate, financial services, transport and mobility, professional service firms and civil society associations.

About Only

Only is a European network of strategic communication agencies. Our 850+ specialists advise clients when value is at stake - across corporate and government communications, public affairs, public relations, reputation management and branding. Built on shared ownership, our teams combine the independence of local expertise with the depth of a collective. With our growing presence across the Netherlands, Belgium and the Nordics, we help organisations navigate the communications that matter most.

Learn more at onlygroup.nl.

www.onlygroup.nl

For more information:

Only - Network of Strategic Communications

Tessa Mogezoomp, Strategy & Community
tessa@only.nl

Radius CPH

Nicolaj Taudorf Andersen
na@radiuscph.dk